

2 days intensive butoh seminar Atsushi Takenouchi

butoh dance and space a body dialogue through the exploration of space

4 – 5 September 2010 Athens Greece

Life was born from the earth and, originally, human danced on this very ground of this earth. It is important to find out and to be conscious of our body as a part of this huge circulation. Atsushi Takenouchi Globe JINEN - www.jinen-butoh.com

The seminar will be accompanied by the Japanese musician Hiroko Komiya.

Which is the space of my body as I am dancing? Where am I locating my body as I am moving in this space? Which is the movement that is connecting the space of my body and the universal space? Which are the borders between the inner and the space out of me?

In this seminar we will study our body movements through butoh dance.

We are going to use improvisation with the basic principal of butoh and we will explore body space and its extensions (the movement in the space of the body, the body is moving as it is redefining its space in a room, the body is moving in the space of cosmos)

- The seminar is mainly for dancers, actors, performers, visual artists and people who love body and movements.

COST: TWO DAY WORKSHOP (twelve hours) 100 EURO. (For your participation there is 40 euro prepay fee)

Place of the seminar:

STUDIO 32 Nileos, Thisio, metro Monastiraki.
